During the trainings we will give an overview of the on-line airfreight rate database www.airfreightrates.aero and introduce the key features and benefits. The time taken by this training will be less than 1 hour.

The online airfreight rate database (in short: AFRA) is an Inforwarding initiative and has been operational in multiple European countries since the beginning of 2003. AFRA makes air freight rates instantly available to users via the internet and e-mail. Rates can be updated on-line by the airlines and forwarders via a secure connection, resulting in a real-time display of valid rates and a minimal chance of irregularities

Presentation is intended for:

- Airline and GSA management interested in a fast and efficient way to distribute tariff, contract and promo rates
- Gateway, airfreight and export managers from Freight Forwarders seeking an easy-to-use tool to access consolidated rates
- Rate and tariff management responsible individuals from Freight Forwarders interested in a solution to ease support of in-house sales teams preparing quotations/tenders and in supplying overseas branches and agency partners with ex-UK rate quotations
- Existing AFRA users seeking a general update and overview of the product and its features
